Iyo Japanese paper 「Kaishi」

What is Kaishi (Japanese tissue)?

Kaishi is made with Japanese paper "Iyo Washi" from Ehime Prefecture.

Features a soft and gentle texture.

Kaishi is made from the finest Japanese paper and has long been used in Japan.

In the past, there was no tissue or handkerchief, so it was customary to carry it in a kimono pocket.

Kaishi is compatible with all uses of writing, wiping and wrapping.

In modern times, it is used as a substitute for napkins and handkerchiefs in high-end restaurants, wrapping sweets at tea ceremony seats. You can also use it as a notepaper and money wrapping.

We will explain how to use Kaishi paper.

- As a paper to put sweets on
- As a chopsticks bag
- As a coaster
- As a paper napkin
- As a pocket bag
- As a note paper

It is also appreciated as a Japanese souvenir abroad.
